

Tri-Com currently has Three (3) Notices of Filings of a Labor Condition Applications with the Employment and Training Administration

Please see the following pages for details

Notice of Filing of a Labor Condition Application with the Employment and Training Administration

1. One H-1B non-immigrant worker is being sought by Tri-Com Consulting Group, LLC through the filing of a Labor Condition Application with the Employment and Training Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor.
2. Tri-Com seeks one such worker to work at The Hartford Insurance Group.
3. The worker being sought is a Developer. The position will work with stakeholders to detail and perform design for the technical requirements of SharePoint 2013 as well as the migration from SharePoint 2007 and 2010. This includes the creation of technical design documentation; integration plans, and build books. Candidate will focus on managing, configuring, tuning, maintaining and monitoring the SharePoint application environments
The following responsibilities are required of this position:
  - Configuration Management and Configuration Change Request evaluation for impact on current configuration of SharePoint assets / Design and migration of SharePoint architectures for SharePoint 2013 / Evaluation and critique of architectural and solution designs in order to improve overall performance of SharePoint assets.
  - Main responsibility of position will be to perform SharePoint site migrations to SP2013 using Metalogix Content matrix tool. The position will work closely with HIG business analysts and customers to ensure timely and successful site migrations.
- Qualifications:
  - experience in design, engineering and development with SharePoint 2007, SharePoint 2010, and SharePoint 2013.
  - Experience migrating customer sites from SharePoint 2007 and 2010 to SharePoint 2013. SharePoint web parts and 3rd party SharePoint application experience required.
  - Must have - SharePoint migration experience and metalogix content matrix.
4. Wages of $62.14/hr are being offered to this worker.
5. The period of employment for which this worker is sought is March 16, 2015 through December 31, 2015.
6. The employment will occur at 200 Hopmeadow Street, Weatogue CT 06089.
7. The Labor Condition Application is available for public inspection at the offices of TRI-COM Consulting Group, LLC, 333 Industrial Park Road, Middletown, CT 06457.

“Complaints alleging misrepresentation of material facts in the labor condition application and/or failure to comply with the terms of the labor condition application may be filed with any office of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.”

Notice of Filing of a Labor Condition Application with the Employment and Training Administration

1. One H-1B non-immigrant worker is being sought by Tri-Com Consulting Group, LLC through the filing of a Labor Condition Application with the Employment and Training Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor.
2. Tri-Com seeks one such worker to work at The State of CT. The agencies supported are The State Department of Education (SDE) Information Technology and the Office of Early Childhood (OEC).
3. The worker being sought is a Developer. The position responsibilities include working with stakeholders to detail, perform design, development and testing for a new Early Childhood Information System initiative in a phased approach to building a new transactional and data warehouse system for supporting all of OEC. Quarterly Releases will be planned and deployed for use by the private, publicly funded sites and agencies to create enrollment records and retrieve unique child level ids. Each new priority process will require a publicly facing web portal with user name and passwords, a connection to a mid-tier level which will handle OEC specific business rules, a connection to a shared SDE service for unique identifiers, a database for storing child, family, program and funding level data and reports.

The following responsibilities are required of this position:

- Work under the supervision of the project manager and the Enterprise Architect to implement development items within the domain, business, service, and presentation layers.
- Design, develop, test, document and support the code base.
- Participate in the technical design of features.
- Work in an agile/scrum environment to deliver high quality software with an aggressive schedule.
- Perform code review with the development team.
- Complete development assignments.
- Perform bug verification, release testing, and beta support.
- Ability to clearly articulate technical matters to non-technical staff.
- Be a team player.

Qualifications:

- At least 3 years' experience with .NET and C#.
- At least 2 years' experience with .NET WCF Technology.
- Strong knowledge of SQL including creation of procedures and function, performance tuning, profiler, and CLR.
- Experience working in an N-Tier environment.
- Experience with .NET MVC 4 & 5
- Experience with Entity Framework, or similar ORM's.
- Experience with Unit Tests.
- Experience working in an Agile Development process, preferably SCRUM.
- JavaScript / jQuery.
- Experience with SQL Server Reporting Services (SSRS).
- Extensive experience using Visual Studio, preferable 2012-2013.

4. Salaried wages of $93,000 are being offered to this worker.
5. The period of employment for which this worker is sought is March 23, 2015 through March 22, 2018.
6. The employment will occur at 165 Capitol Avenue, Hartford CT 06106.
7. The Labor Condition Application is available for public inspection at the offices of The TRI-COM Consulting Group, LLC, 333 Industrial Park Road, Middletown, CT 06457.

“Complaints alleging misrepresentation of material facts in the labor condition application and/or failure to comply with the terms of the labor condition application may be filed with any office of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.”

Notice of Filing of a Labor Condition Application with the Employment and Training Administration

1. One H-1B non-immigrant worker is being sought by Tri-Com Consulting Group, LLC through the filing of a Labor Condition Application with the Employment and Training Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor.
2. Tri-Com seeks one such worker to work at Otis Elevator.
3. The worker being sought is a Developer. The position will work with stakeholders to detail and perform design for the technical requirements of SharePoint 2013 as well as the migration from SharePoint 2007 and 2010. This includes the creation of technical design documentation; integration plans, and build books. Candidate will focus on managing, configuring, tuning, maintaining and monitoring the SharePoint application environments

The following responsibilities are required of this position:

- Business requirement gathering and aligning with development team. FSD & TSD review.
- Technical design & development. Custom webparts, master page & feature development. Key custom webparts and features are
  - Custom master page
  - Dashboard Summary
  - User Administration
  - Delegation
- Custom workflow development using Microsoft Visio 2013 and SharePoint Designer 2013
- Estimation review.
- Involve in application functionality review with customer, UAT coordination, and Production Go/No Go coordination.

Qualifications:

- Experience in design, engineering and development with SharePoint 2007, SharePoint 2010, and SharePoint 2013.
- Experience migrating customer sites from SharePoint 2007 and 2010 to SharePoint 2013. SharePoint web parts and 3rd party SharePoint application experience required.
- Must have SharePoint development experience.

4. Wages of $65,000.00 per year are being offered to this worker.
5. The period of employment for which this worker is sought is Sept 15, 2015 through Sept 15, 2018.
6. The employment will occur at 5 Farm Springs Road, Farmington, CT 06032.
7. The Labor Condition Application is available for public inspection at the offices of TRI-COM Consulting Group, LLC, 333 Industrial Park Road, Middletown, CT 06457.

“Complaints alleging misrepresentation of material facts in the labor condition application and/or failure to comply with the terms of the labor condition application may be filed with any office of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor.”